2019 Pack Hooked on Scouting Recruitment Manual for Fall Roundup

Each brand-new Scout will receive a brand-new fishing rod and reel and an invite to attend the free Hooked on Scouting fishing event!
Roundup – Join Scouting Night

WHY A RECRUITMENT NIGHT FOR SCOUTING?
TO HELP EVERY PACK GROW!

• Recruitment nights sometimes known as Roundup nights or Join Scouting Nights are special events hosted by Packs to share Scouting with new families and enroll new Scouts and adults.
• If your pack is small, this is a great time to add more families. This will make it easier to do all the things on your calendar.
• If your Pack is just right, fall is the time to add younger youth and begin engaging and training new adults. They will become your future leaders.
• If you have a large Pack, fall is a good time to add new families and get them started helping with special Den or Pack-wide events. Many hands make light work.

Why ‘Hooked on Scouting’?

• Hooked on Scouting is a program that has been proven to encourage Scouts to join a local unit through the added incentive of a fishing pole and a fishing event.
• Scouts that join at the beginning of the year get the benefit of the whole Scouting program cycle.
• Scouts and their families get to attend an exciting outdoor experience within their 1st month as a Cub Scout.
• This type of recruitment also increases the unit’s ability to recruit new leaders right away in the fall and get them trained.

How Does it Work?

Hooked on Scouting works with 6 simple steps:

Step 1: Set up a Roundup Night for August or September
Step 2: Conduct a Roundup Night in August or September
Step 3: Distribute Fishing Poles to Scouts on the Hooked on Scouting Roundup Night*
Step 4: Distribute Ticket to October 5th Fishing Events*
Step 5: Follow up with anyone that didn’t commit*
Step 6: Have a Great Year of Scouting!

Every Roundup night needs the 3 E’s

Engage youth in Scouting—Promote your event and make it fun. Get Scouts excited!

Enroll new members in your Pack—Be ready to answer parent questions and complete registrations, collect fees and give out fishing poles that night.

Establish connections with new families—Keep them informed and welcomed. Your whole program will gain new, helpful people and resources. Recruiting a New Member Coordinator (see the information in the back of this guide) is a great way to help build connections with new families.

*Fishing rods and reels will only be presented to those Scouts that complete a BSA Youth Application and submit the appropriate fees. Rods will not be shared until this step is complete.
Steps for Success

START EARLY TO MAKE A PLAN FOR THE 3 E’S

ENGAGE
Promote your roundup event and your Pack activities

- Set a date soon. This gives you more time to get the word out. Families are busy.
- Use multiple methods to promote. (See specific ideas below)
- Don’t stop with one roundup night. Promote some of your fun activities in early fall as chances for new families to visit and join your Pack.

Welcome new families to your event and make it fun.

- Focus on fun for the youth.
- Be well prepared for the evening. That will let you relax and enjoy the night.
- Have volunteers to greet families.
- Get contact information for all your new families.

ENROLL
Have printed information and key Pack/Den leaders to answer parent questions

- Calendar and basic information are critical.
- Contact information and general Pack information is important too.
- Know how much your dues are.

Have the materials needed to enroll Scouts. Complete applications that night.

- Applications, new Scout packets, pens, change...Know how checks are to be written.
- Make sure you sign up for the Hooked on Scouting program so you can have fishing poles on hand that night!
  Any Scout that submits a complete application with payment gets a fishing pole the night of sign up!

Establish Connections
Provide parents with multiple contact people to help them as new Scout families.

- Pre-fill or help them fill out the “My Scouting Adventure Plan” in the New Scout Packet.

Get new parents into your Pack communication network

- Weekly email or printed newsletter
- Phone tree/Text messaging notification
- Facebook Group/Website

Welcome the new families

- A letter or email from the Cubmaster and/or the Committee Chairperson

Have a regular activity soon after your roundup night.

- Den or Pack activity.
• Make sure it is fun.
• Promote the free Hooked on Scouting Event on October 5th.
• Give new families all the details at the roundup—printed info is particularly good.

Make a point to learn about your new families.

• Use the Parent Talent Survey provided in the New Scout Packet and/or simply talk to them
• Have a Pack Organization Night soon after your round up.

Follow-up with families still deciding about joining Scouting.

• Have a specific plan of who will contact families.
• Make sure follow-up people have all the materials and supplies they need.
• Complete follow-up within 2 weeks of your roundup night.

Connect to your District Membership Team for Recruiting Help

• Promotional materials and information about Scouting.
• Helpful folks to support your roundup night.
• Assistance with scout talks. (where able)

Make sure that Hooked on Scouting is a part of your Pack Program Planning this summer!
Be Prepared

BEFORE THE ROUNDCUP NIGHT – AKA PROMOTING YOUR RECRUITMENT NIGHT

In-School Promotion— You need to have your Roundup / Join Scouting Night date first!
If your unit has full access to promoting your event at school, you can employ any of the following best practices:

- Distribute sign-up event fliers the week before the sign-up event
- Posters and yard signs around school
- School rallies or scout talks at the school
- Back-to-school open house events, school carnivals, and conferences
- Electronic backpacks
- Invite current youth and parents to attend lunch at school in uniform
- Videos on in-school video networks
- School newsletter or website
- School marquee signs

New Scout talks

- The New Scout talks will excite boys and girls to join Cub Scouting and to make the connection. Explain that the recruitment flyer is the ticket to sign up!
- Opportunities to go directly to classes at a local school. Ask the principal for a few minutes to meet with all Cub Scout-age youth, going from classroom to classroom. If assembly-type rally is held, it is better to meet separately with Lions (Kindergarten), Tiger Cubs (1st Grade), Cub Scouts (2nd and 3rd), and Webelos (4th and 5th) TIP: Search for “Cub Scout boy talks” on YouTube for some examples.
- Membership team members can help with these. Get your District Executive, District Representative, Commissioner, Pack Leader and/or parent volunteer to help out.
- Hundreds of flyers go home in the fall - the prospective new Scouts need to know this one is special!
- Hooked on Scouting information sheet – Get this to your District Executive to get flyers.

Scout-to-Scout invitations

- Make sure to have written information for friends to take home.
- Can use your flyers.
- Can use a business card or postcard size card.

Face-to-face opportunities

- Church socials and Sunday school events.
- School open houses and curriculum nights.
- Plan a display and have flyers for your roundup night.

Out-of-School Promotion
Here are several ideas for promoting the event outside of the schools. These tactics can be done either in tandem with your in-school promotions or on their own if you are not able to get full access to the schools.

- Ask current members to use social media to let their friends and family know about sign-up event nights
- Personalized invitations, emails, and personal phone calls to prospective parents
- Door hangers and door-to-door invitations
- Recruit-a-friend and other peer-to-peer recruiting initiatives
- Fliers and new Scout talks at after-school programs or churches in the community
- Church and community websites, calendars, and bulletins
- Press releases
- Billboards, posters, and yard signs in the community (businesses, churches, etc.)
- Community fairs, parades, and other events

Print and electronic media promotions—templates available at www.newbirthoffreedom.org

- Newspapers
- Church bulletins and newsletters
- School newsletters and calendars
- Friday homework folders
- Posters or Flyers on Display (windows, bulletin boards, etc.) at:
  - Schools
  - Churches
  - Charter Organizations
  - Local Businesses like Groceries & Laundromats
- Yard Signs (Current Pack families, schools and businesses can display.)

MATERIALS

Planning materials – available on the website at www.newbirthoffreedom.org

- Sample agendas for the roundup night.
- New Scout talk/flyer information sheet.

Promotional materials – Available through your District Executives

- Flyers
- Posters
- Yard signs

New Scout Recruitment Kit – Your recruitment night folder

- Pack/Scouting display table - Can include sample handbooks
- Gathering activity supplies
- Flags for opening
The Roundup Night

Leaders - Your District Membership Team would be glad to attend your events and support your volunteers.

- Set up and clean-up crew - Can overlap with other roles. Arrive early so you can be set up 15 minutes ahead of event start time.
- Den Leaders or designee plus two other leaders to run the meeting.
- Greeters 1-2 to help with sign in and as needed.
- 2 - 4 youth activities leaders. Maybe a Scout Troop could support your Pack in this role.
- 1 - 2 adults to collect applications and money - Can overlap with greeters.

Room choices

- Consider acoustics and available seating when selecting the room.
- Libraries or classrooms can often be more functional than the cafeteria or the gym.
- Have a separate room for Scouts and their frequently loud activities.

Room set up

- Start with signs, balloons, music to set a fun mood.
- Welcome station to greet people at the door and make sure they know where to go.
- Have Pack displays around the room to highlight your Pack events.
- Tables by grade - At each table have the following:
  - Den leaders or their designee
  - Sign-in sheets and name tags
  - Gathering Activity
  - Parent Information materials
  - Pens

Registration table

- Envelope for application and money collection
- Change
- Pens
- Room to write
- Applications
- New Scout Packets

Room Setup

Here is a simple example of how you might want to set up your room for your Hooked on Scouting Recruitment Night. There are many effective ways, but this one seems to work well!

FOLLOW-UP

Turn in your applications that night to your District Executive, Commissioner, or representative from the District. Everyone who turns in a Hooked on Scouting date before August 23rd will have someone at their meeting to deliver fishing poles. If you were unable to have someone attend your meeting, within 24 hours turn in your completed applications to your District Executive or Commissioner.

- Use the collection envelope. Contact your District Executive to arrange pick-up if needed.
- Make prior plans with your Treasurer to have a check ready for the Council for National fees to send with your applications.

Follow-up with families still deciding about Scouting.

- Review the sign-in sheets.
- Contact the families within 2 weeks.
- See what blocked them from signing up. (Try to identify ways to help.)

Welcome new Scouts and their families.

- Remind them of the next youth event.
- Spell out the details of what they need to bring or wear etc.
- Remind parents of your Pack Organization Night.

Hooked on Scouting Event-October 5th
Locations will be finalized by the end of July.

All new Scouts will be invited to participate.

- Any new scout who joins at a Hooked on Scouting Roundup Night in the fall will get a fishing pole and invitation the night he signs up.
- Scouts that sign up at the October 5th events will also get a free rod and reel.

Event Details

- Events will run from 9am until Noon. Families are welcome to come and go and stay as long or as little as they would like.
- Each event will have between 5 to 7 stations where new Scouts and their families will learn basics about fishing and get an opportunity to fish.

CONGRATULATIONS ON AN AWESOME RECRUITMENT NIGHT!
Recruitment Night Outline and Script

1. Pre-Opening – 30 minutes before the opening
   a. Have the pack set up displays (picture boards, Pinewood Derby track, awards, crafts, etc.).
      Join Scouting posters on entrance doors with directions to the meeting room.
   b. Be prepared with pre-opening activities to keep scouts and parents involved.
      i. Meeting can be killed quickly with uncontrolled running, shouting and horse play.
      ii. Use the following suggestions to keep the crowd under control.
      1. Have parents and scouts stay seated together.
      2. Sing songs.
      3. Have games (word searches).
   c. Have table tents and den flags to tell people where to sit (by grade). Make sure to have plenty of pens at each table so parents can fill out information.
   d. Utilize current adult leadership to keep scouts and parents in assigned room and out of the halls and other areas.
   e. Have parents fill out the attendance roster as they arrive.
   f. Distribute Parent Orientation Guides, Pack Annual Calendar, Parent Talent Surveys, Boys’ Life Mini Mags, and any other pack information as people sign in (do NOT give out the adult or youth applications yet).

2. Opening & Welcome – 10 minutes
   a. Start on time!!!
   b. Opening Ceremony by current Cubs Scouts of the pack.
   c. Teach Cub Scout Sign (Sign Ice Breaker Game) Simply show the Cub Scout Sign and explain that these are the ears of Akela the wolf who is trying to hear what is going on. Have them make as much noise a possible and see how quickly they quiet when the sign is shown. Do this 3 times to work off some of their energy.
   d. An important ingredient in any pack meeting is having some fun, so lead with a song.

3. General Meeting – 10 minutes
   a. Briefly state purpose of meeting, tell about Scouting's opportunities in the neighborhood and inform how attendees may participate.
   b. Explain how Scouting "does business".
      i. The BSA creates a partnership with an institution such as school, church, civic group or group of citizens, who provide a meeting location, help in selecting leadership and often assist with financial support.
      ii. The Boy Scouts of America provides program, literature and other materials, training for leadership, and major activities including provision of camping facilities.
      iii. All this is accomplished through the New Birth of Freedom Councils’ resources which presently serve more than 9,000 members each year in 300 various programs.
   c. General Presentation (Discussion Bullet Points)
      o Great emphasis should be placed on giving each parent the opportunity to join Scouting with his/her child.
Families with children of Scouting age are the major resource of Scouting's leadership.

- Program leadership is volunteer driven
- Full support and cooperation of every family is essential to a successful Scouting program.
- Families can help do their share by serving as: pack leaders, assistant leaders, den leaders and committee members.
- Providing resources such as transportation help for Cub Scout outings.
- Scouting believes it has the finest program available for youth, but it is not in the babysitting business, so parents...we need your help.
- Active parental support is needed and each of us has talent to share with others.
- Please take time to be an informed parent and encourage your child in the Scouting advancement program.
- Many hands make light work, volunteer and help with time, talent and funds to ensure better Scouting for your child and others in the neighborhood.

4. Pack Leadership – 5 minutes – Recruitment Coordinator & Cubmaster

Recruitment Coordinator Script – I always like to ask the question of parents, how many of you were involved in Scouting as a kid (either Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts)? It is always amazing to see our alumni, and I am sure that each of you has your own Scouting stories, which would be amusing to listen to. But I am also certain that each of you could identify those ways in which Scouting had a positive influence on developing your character. Personally, I have witnessed kids having great times in Scouting and not even realizing that their participation is teaching them life-long skills. Well enough reminiscing, I would like to introduce to you the Cubmaster of Pack (number and name). He/she will also introduce the rest of the current pack leadership that are present and share some of the great adventures planned this year.

Cubmaster Script – Quickly introduce current leaders and review highlights of packs activity schedule.

5. Den Development – 10 minutes

- Now divide the room by grade-level and have families move to tables by grade, if they are not already segmented in such a fashion.
- Starting with the Lions, explain that this program is really cool, because it is the first opportunity that these youth have had to join Scouting. The program is designed to be an introduction to Scouting and a chance to explore the community. Lions meet bi-weekly as a Den and work on activities and advancements out of their Lion Handbook and have a lot of fun. Each Scout will need an appropriate uniform and prices for the shirt and handbook can be found in the New Parent Orientation Guide provided tonight. Lions are unique because each Scout must have an adult partner that attends meetings and outings, so finding leadership is easy. Have the Lions give their best roar on the count of three.
• Move onto Tigers, our 1st graders. Like Lions, each Scout must have an adult partner that attends meetings and outings. Tigers go on adventures and work on advancements out of their Tiger Handbook. All of the 1st graders meet together and when they get together they roar!
• Move onto the 2nd, and 3rd graders explaining the Wolf and Bear programs, each a little more challenging than its predecessor and also that much more fun. Each group meets weekly as a den. All will need the appropriate book and shirt. Have them howl or growl and then proceed.
• 4th and 5th graders are super cool and known in Scouting as Webelos, which stands for “We’ll Be Loyal Scouts”. Webelos is designed to be a transition program from Cub Scouts into Scouts BSA. This is where the adventure really begins, as Scouts do more outdoor activities like camping, hiking, etc.
• Each den comes together once a month for what is called a pack meeting. This is basically a party to celebrate all of the advancements being earned at the den level and we play better games, sing crazier songs and eat yummier snacks.
• Discuss joining fees of $33/year, plus $12 for Boys’ Life/Scouts’ Life. Explain prorating of fees if applicable. Many of the additional costs of Scouting are funded through our annual fundraising efforts and cost families very little in out-of-pocket expenses.
• Each den requires a den leader and an assistant den leader, as we always have at least two leaders present at any Scouting event. We will talk more about these opportunities in just a moment, but you new Scouts have sat around long enough...

6. Recruit Adults – 15 minutes
   (Remember, the Scout Talk Recruits the youth, it is now time to recruit the parents.)

   Have several of the current leaders take the Scouts to play a game (either in a completely separate room or outside). They can even work on some of the requirements for the Bobcat badge. This is a great chance for your partnering Scouts BSA troop to help.

   - A. Set the stage (the object is to get them excited about the fun and the opportunities of being a leader and set their mind at ease concerning the time involvement and difficulty). Suggested phrases are:

   - Many of you tonight will have the opportunity to be leaders
   - Many people don’t volunteer because they are:
     - Not interested
     - Don’t have time
     - Don’t know how
   - Counter these reasons with:
     - We know you are interested or you wouldn’t be here.
     - Out of 168 hours in the week, you can surely find a few hours to spend with your child and his or her friends.
     - We find time for what’s important to us.
     - We will show you what to do through proper training, Scouting would not have lasted 100 years if we allowed our leaders to not be successful.
B. Explain Jobs – As parents, you have a choice between, “Children or Books”

- Den Leader: (hold up Program Plans) This is a real opportunity to work with your child and his or her friends. If all you do is follow the program outlined in the Program Plans you will have a good meeting. A 1-hour meeting is broken down into manageable parts and tells you exactly what to do each week. You meet at your convenience (including the time, location, and day of the week – this is one of the benefits of being the den leader).

- Assistant Den Leader: Helps at den meetings. Two-deep adult leadership is required at all meetings and outings.

- Parent Committee Members: The pack committee is the administrative body of the pack. They determine such things as fundraisers, policy, leadership, transportation, records and outings, as well as helping plan pack meetings.

C. Motivate (can use other motivating stories here as well)

“Picture your child for a moment – if he or she is 8, 9 or 10; they have already spent 1/2 of the time they are going to be at home with you – when he or she is 18, 19 or 20; they will be gone – off to college, getting a job and having their own place, or joining the military. Now is the time your son or daughter needs you.

Now, you, are the most important and influential person in your child’s life. In fact, the Boy Scouts of America commissioned a study to ask kids this age a series of questions. “If you had a problem, who would you turn to?”, “If you needed help or advice, who would you ask?” Results showed you to be the #1 response when kids were asked these questions at this age. Those same kids were followed up with and asked the same questions when they were teenagers. If you can think back to how much your parents knew when you were a teenager, you have probably already figured out that you will lose your #1 ranking in the survey. Friends became #1 and parents fell way down the list. The outcome of this study is that if you want to have an impact on your child’s development, now is the time to invest, you can’t wait. Now you are the world to them, I encourage you to make the most of it. Scouting is a great family program that will help you instill the values in your son or daughter that will help him or her develop into a person you will be proud of.

Tonight I am going to give you a gift, the gift of impacting your child’s life dramatically, along with other kids in the neighborhood. The impact you will have on them, through Scouting, is proven to make them more successful in life and we all want that for our children.”

D. The Close

“Momentarily, I’m going to step out for a while and ask that you introduce yourselves and get to know each other. Talk about what might be a good night and time for your den to meet and determine the best person to serve as den leader, assistant den leader, and members of the parents committee for your den. Before I do, I’d like to leave with this poem.”

“A Child’s Eyes”

“I’d like to be a Cub Scout” …
(Said eyes that were clear and true)
“T’d like to learn, and play, and build,
Like Jen and Freddy do.”

“I know how to use a hammer;
I can drive a nail if I try…
I’m eight years old; I’m big and strong
And hardly every cry.”

The Scout took the application
And parent-participation sheet.
(Eyes were filled with sunshine Atop dancing feet.)

Next day my friend was back again
A dejected face was had
“I guess I’ll skip the Cub Scouts.”
(Those eyes were now dark and sad)

“My Mom is awfully busy,
She has lots of friends, you see,
She’d never have time for a Den,
She hardly has time for me.”

“And Dad is always working…
He’s hardly ever there;
To give them any more to do
Just wouldn’t be quite fair.”

The Scout handed me back the papers
With the dignity of eight years,
And smiling bravely, left me.
(Those eyes now filled with tears.)

Do you see you own child’s eyes
As other people may?
Those looks when you’re “too busy”
Or “just haven’t time today”?

A child is such a special gift…
Why won’t you realize
It only takes a little time
To put sunshine in those eyes.

You say, “I’ll start tomorrow”
But tomorrow is far away.
Childhood is such a short time
So won’t you start today?

E. Leave Them.
Walk out of the room. Don’t stand around to answer their questions or you will end up trying to select their leaders. If they have questions, answer them briefly, then take all existing Scouting leaders and leave the area. In about 5-10 minutes check back to see what progress has been made.

Recognize those parents that have stepped up to help and encourage other groups to keep at it until they can resolve their need. Again, leave the room.

In the event a den can’t find the leadership, try this – “I realize you are having difficulty, perhaps all of you work, or have small children, or work shifts. I can’t solve your problem for you. For your child’s sake, please try one more time to solve your problem. Perhaps all of you will have to work as assistants – see what you can work out and I’ll check with you in a few minutes.”

1. Recognize Leaders. As leadership is secured, call for attention and introduce the leaders, assign them their den number and ask everyone to give them a hand.
2. Registration (get help from several current pack leaders!)
   Now it is time to pull out the applications to be completed, think of them as the contract to complete your sale.
   - Collect completed adult applications and registration fee. You will have to get clearances for each of the new leaders. You will then need to get the appropriate signatures on each.
   - Count money and applications. Give Cub Scout applications to the new den leader (do not hand out Cub applications before a den leader is selected). Ask the den leader to get all of them completed with the registration fee and Boys’ Life fee (if wanted by the family). Ask him/her to put den number in top left-hand corner of application. The Den Leader gives the top sheet of the application to the new Cub Scout to start working on the Bobcat requirements.
   - Make sure that all of the parents have the back of their Parents’ Orientation Guide filled out with all the important names and numbers.
   - The new den leader needs to make sure that the den roster is filled out completely (including names and numbers).
   - Collect the above information from each den.

3. All den leaders, assistants, and committee members stay; other parents may go home. Training and meetings need to be discussed.

4. If the Cubmaster and/or committee chairman is needed, call all the adults together. Tell them that they are off to a great start and the pack should be a good one. Tell them that all they need now is a Cubmaster and/or committee chairman and for them to decide who is the best person for the job. Leave them to make the decision.

5. Turn in all applications and paperwork to the Council Service Center. If scouts are found that signed the attendance roster and did NOT turn in an application, they must be called and asked why they did not sign up.

Membership Tip

Unit New Member Coordinator

Consider recruiting a New Member Coordinator for your unit. There is a description of the position in this packet. This position helps to welcome new families and help them get oriented to the Cub Scout Pack.
The Unit’s
New Member Coordinators

[Note that a unit is encouraged to have co- or multiple holders of this position.]

Sustaining strong membership in a unit depends not only on having new members join the unit but also on engaging youth and their families in the unit experience so that they stay. The role of the New Member Coordinators is to ensure that both of these keys to success take place.

Appointment and Support:

The New Member Coordinators are appointed by and report to the Unit Committee Chair. The New Member Coordinators work with and are supported by the District Membership Chair as well as by unit leadership, the sponsoring organization, and commissioners.

Responsibilities:

In general, all New Member Coordinators:

Serve as welcoming ambassadors for the unit.
Work with the unit committee in developing and implementing the Unit Membership Plan.
Participate in New Member Coordinator training and collaborate with the district membership team.

Specific responsibilities for each New Member Coordinator should be determined by the unit’s New Member team depending on individual interests and the needs of the unit. The tasks and opportunities listed below should help to guide the planning for individual and shared responsibilities.

Each of the three action elements listed should be included in the Unit Membership Plan developed with the leadership of New Member Coordinators:

1. Share the benefits of Scouting.
   a. Develop and share your own Scouting story, showing the impact of Scouting on your family.
   b. Identify and access research data and local examples confirming the fun and value of Scouting to youth, families, and the community.
   c. Promote Scouting benefits through social media and other avenues of communication.
   d. Showcase Scouting through engagement in local community events and service.

2. Coordinate unit recruitment.
   a. Oversee unit recruitment efforts such as joining events, informational presentations, and peer-to-peer initiatives.
   b. Appeal to potential youth members and their families through well-designed and widely-distributed invitations shared through electronic media, handouts, and personal contacts.
   c. Ensure that the unit’s BeAScout pin is up-to-date and that prompt follow-through takes place.
   d. Collaborate with local school representatives and community leaders, particularly in the chartered organization, to foster promotion of Scouting opportunities.

   a. Help youth and adults to greet newcomers warmly and to establish friendly, enjoyable relationships so that new members form a strong sense of belonging.
   b. Develop a unit welcome packet, electronically and/or in print, to answer frequently asked questions and to provide resource and contact information.
   c. Ensure that youth and adult applications, transfers, and payments are promptly submitted to the council service center.
   d. Build fun and excitement about the unit program and encourage youth and their families to take pride in Scouting accomplishments.
   e. Promote feedback and sharing of ideas through customer satisfaction surveys and other means.
Electronic Support for your Recruiting Event

To create a public Facebook event on your computer: (These are a great way to advertise joining opportunities in your community)

1. From your News Feed, click Events in the left menu.
2. Click + Create Event on the left side.
3. Click Create Public Event. Anyone will be able to see your event and search for it, even if you aren't friends. Once you've created a public event, you won't be able to change it to private later.
4. Fill in the event name, location, date, time and description.
5. Type and select keywords about your public event so it can be better recommended to people who are interested in that topic (example: Food festival).
6. Choose who can edit and post in your event and then click Create. You'll be taken to your event where you can invite guests, upload photos, add a cover photo or video, share posts and edit event details.

Use Social Media to Help Your Unit Recruit

Generating some quick Facebook messages or Tweets and sharing them with your parents and asking them to share with their friends is a great way to spread the word. Using Instagram to share stories is a great way to share the exciting things your pack does!*
Updating Your Unit BeAScout Pin for Online Applications

Before your unit starts using the online registration system, there are some configuration decisions that the unit must make. The Chartered Organization Representative, or the Committee Chair or their designee has access to make changes through the Organization Manager tool in My.Scouting.

Configurations that your unit can make include:

- Payment options – credit and cash. You can determine whether applying parents can use a credit card to register or if they must do so using cash.

- Unit Fee Message – only the national registration fee and Boys’ Life subscription fee is collected through the online payment system. This configuration allows units to inform applicants that the unit has an activity fee, the amount of the fee, and a message about what the fee covers. This message will be sent on the invitation when sent through Invitation Manger.

- Automated Welcome Email – the system is configured to send out a welcome email from the BSA National Service Center with a message from the Chief Scout Executive when a youth or adult is accepted by the unit. This configuration sends an automated welcome message from the unit the day after the Chief’s welcome message is sent. There is a place for you to add the message that you would like to send to the new families.

- Family Scouting – this configuration will only be visible to Cub Scout Packs right now. This setting will allow you to select if the pack is “boy only”, “girl only”, or accepting “both boys and girls.” This information will show on your unit’s BeAScout pin so that families can use this information to select the pack that is right for their family’s needs.

Once configurations are made, be sure to click “Commit” at the bottom of the page.

Using Invitation Manager (the almost paperless recruitment night)

Access your unit’s “Invitation Manager” in my.scouting.org. The unit’s chartered organization representative, committee chair, unit leader (Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, Advisor, Skipper), institutional head/chartered organization executive officer, and new unit coordinator have access to invitation manager.

From the dashboard you are going to manually add New Leads that are gathered from email addresses provided by parents when they sign in at your recruitment night.

Once families receive the invitation, they will be able to register electronically as long as the unit is configured for accepting Online Applications. Note: Once they have completed the application, the Committee Chair or Cubmaster will have to go into the Application Manager and accept the application.
