The Boy Scouts of America prepares young people for life by providing the nation's foremost youth program of character development and values-based leadership training. The New Birth of Freedom Council, Boy Scouts of America, coordinates Scouting programs for youth in Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Perry and York Counties in south-central Pennsylvania.
October 2019

Dear Eagle Scout,

On Tuesday, November 26, 2019, the New Birth of Freedom Council’s Tenth Annual Eagle Scout Recognition Dinner will be held at the Hershey Lodge, 325 University Drive, Hershey, Pennsylvania.

This special event will honor this year’s class of Eagle Scouts, as well as Joe Crosswhite for his leadership and service to the community. It also serves as one of the major opportunities for local business and other community leaders to financially support Scouting programs in our council. Many of them will be in attendance.

As an Eagle Scout in the 2019 Class and for earning Scouting’s highest rank, you are cordially invited to attend as our guest so that we may celebrate your achievement of earning the Eagle Scout Award. There is no cost for you to attend, but any guests that would like to accompany you will be charged $30.00 to cover the cost of dinner.

We hope you will be able to join us.

Please return the enclosed registration form to the Council Service Center in the return envelope by Friday, November 15, 2019. Plan to arrive at the Hershey Lodge no later than 5:45 p.m. for family photographs and preparation for the opening ceremony. Keep in mind that this is a heavily attended event (700+ last year) so please RSVP as soon as possible. For your information, your Scoutmaster will also receive an invitation to attend, under separate cover.

If you have any additional questions about the information outlined above please contact Cathy Vujasin at cathy.vujasin@scouting.org or (717) 620-4530.

Congratulations on all your accomplishments and achievements in Scouting!

Yours in Scouting,
Thomas J. Porsch
Council Advancement Chairman
