- BB Gun/Slingshot Rangemaster and Archery Rangemaster training (2 separate courses) are conducted by a BSA National Camping School Certified Shooting Sports Director, or Certified Instructors authorized by the shooting sports committee.
- These “BB Gun/Slingshot Rangemaster” and “Archery Rangemaster” certifications are valid for two years from the date of the training.

Archery, BB gun, and sling shot shooting for Cub Scouts and Webeles Scouts are restricted to District or Council organized day camps, Cub Scout/ Webeles Scout long term camp, short term camp or to council activities held on or off BSA property where the district or council provides currently trained BSA shooting sports Rangemasters and all standards for BSA shooting sports are enforced.

Archery, BB gun, and sling shot shooting for Cub Scouts and Webeles Scouts are prohibited at the pack level or den level. A multi-pack or multi-den event is not to be considered a district or council activity.

All shooting ranges in the Cub Scout program must be supervised by a qualified Rangemaster, who is at least 18 years of age, and meets the minimum requirements. (Youth Protection Guidelines)

Every Scout deserves a trained leader!
