

Every week, millions of Scouts raise their hands and make a promise. It's not a pledge to an organization. It's a lifelong commitment to themselves, their families, and the community they share.

THE SCOUT OATH

On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE WORDS WE LIVE BY

TRUSTWORTHY

Scouts agree that Scouting has taught them to always be honest and to be a leader.

LOYAL

Scouts are proud to live in the USA and they say spending time with family is important to them.

HELPFUL

Scouts surveyed believe that helping others should come before their own self-interest.

FRIENDLY

Scouts say that Scouting has taught them to treat others with respect and to get along with others.

COURTEOUS

Scouts believe older people should be treated with respect.

KIND

Scouts say that Scouting has taught them to care for other people.

OBEDIENT

Youth in Scouting five years or more are more likely to reject peer pressure to hang out with young delinquents.

CHEERFUL

Scouts are happy with their schools and their neighborhoods.

THRIFTY

Scouts say that saving money for the future is a priority.

BRAVE

Scouts say that Scouting has increased their confidence and most rate their self-confidence as excellent.

CLEAN

Scouts say that Scouting has taught them to have more respect for the environment and their physical fitness.

REVERENT

Adults who were Scouts for five or more years say attending religious services as a family is very important.

A LASTING INVESTMENT IN A CHILD'S FUTURE

Your support of the New Birth of Freedom Council makes life-shaping Scouting experiences possible for thousands of young people in our community. Through outdoor adventures, service projects, and leadership opportunities, Scouts gain confidence, resilience, and strong values. Your gift helps provide safe camps, trained leaders, a dedicated professional staff and volunteer service center that supports units and ensures Scouting grows, along with meaningful programs that prepare children to lead with integrity and succeed in life—today and for generations to come.

Here's what it costs to make Scouting happen in our council. This is why we need the generous and loyal support of our Friends of Scouting.
