

Benjamin Franklin Quotes

A Scout is Trustworthy:

Three things that never return:

- Spoken Words
- Past Time
- And a Broken Trust

A Scout is Loyal:

We must indeed all hang together or most assuredly we shall hang separately.

A Scout is Helpful:

The most acceptable service of God is doing good to man.

A Scout is Friendly:

Be civil to all, sociable to many, familiar to few, friend to one and enemy to none.

A Scout is Courteous:

One should be humble to a superior's duty. To equals, courtesy, and inferiors, nobleness.

A Scout is Kind:

When you are good to others you are best to yourself.

A Scout is Obedient:

He that cannot obey cannot command.

A Scout is Cheerful:

People can choose to happy or unhappy with equal health and wealth.

A Scout is Thrifty:

A penny saved is a penny earned.

A Scout is Brave:

A man without courage is like a knife without an edge.

A Scout is Clean:

Tolerate no uncleanness in body, cloths, or habitation.

A Scout is Reverent:

I adore him for his wisdom. Fear him for his power and pray to him for his favor and protection.
